

Bilag til F. t. midlert. L. om Tillæg til L. om Patenter m. v.

Article 2.

Where a patentee as such establishes that by reason of the war he has suffered loss or damage, he may obtain an extension of the term of his protection under the conditions prescribed by the national law of each of the contracting Governments.

Article 3.

The period between the 3rd September, 1939, and the date of coming into force of the present Agreement shall be excluded from the prescribed periods for the exploitation of a patent, for the use of trade marks, or for the exploitation of industrial designs or models; further, it is agreed that no patent, or registration of a trade mark or industrial design or model which was in force on the 3rd September, 1939, shall be revoked or cancelled solely on the ground of non-exploitation or non-use before the expiration of a period of two years commencing from the coming into force of the present Agreement.

Article 4.

The renewal of trade mark registration which have reached the end of their normal period, if it is effected before the expiration of the period provided by Article 1 shall have the effect of ante-dating the term of the new period of protection to the date of expiration of the said normal period.

Article 5.

The present Agreement is applicable as regards patents, trade marks, and industrial designs or models to those which are registered, in Denmark, at the Service of Industrial Property, and, in the United Kingdom, at the Patent Office. It shall be extended to patents, trade marks, industrial designs or models registered in the colonies, protectorates or mandated territories, on simple notification by the contracting Government concerned to the other contracting Government.

Under this article, however, the present Agreement shall not be extended in respect of the provisions of subparagraph 1 a) and 2. b) of Article 1 to any colony, protectorate or mandated territory to which the International Convention of Paris of the 20th March, 1883, as subsequently revised, has not been applied.

Article 6.

The present Agreement shall come into force on the date of signature thereof.

In witness whereof, the undersigned, duly authorised by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement and have affixed thereto their seals.
